Application for the City of Jacksonville

Citizen Advisory Committee (CAC) to review the Jacksonville Urban Growth Boundary

Purpose of the CAC

The CAC will receive findings from a Technical Advisory Committee (TAC) regarding the status of the current UGB; whether the City should seek a UGB amendment; and recommendations for potential candidate lands including review and consideration of two UGB amendment applications. The CAC will formulate those findings to (a) recommendation(s) to the Planning Commission.

Criteria for Appointment

Membership on Jacksonville committees and commissions is open without regard to race, color, religion, sex, age, national origin, physical or mental disability, marital status, family status, veteran status, or membership in any other group protected by law in accordance with applicable federal, state, and local laws.

Applicants shall demonstrate an ability to understand complex land use issues and respect the diversity of interests of all parties.

Applicants shall demonstrate and encourage flexibility, and consider perspectives of non-participating citizens and interest groups.

General Conditions for Appointment

CAC members shall be chosen by the City Council at a public meeting. Member terms will last the duration of the project. Members shall serve without compensation.

Failure of any member to attend three consecutive meetings; misconduct; or nonperformance of duty, shall be cause for removal from the CAC by the City Council.

The CAC shall have no authority to make any expenditures on behalf of the City or to obligate the city for payments of sums of money, without prior City Council approval.
