The Jacksonville Woodlands Historical Natural Park and Trail System has outstanding all-weather hiking trails for hikers of differing abilities. There is no such thing as bad weather, just bad clothing. Trail maps are available at the Visitor.

1 Sarah Zigler Interpretive Trail
1 mile / flat

A National Recreation Trail, beginning in the Peter Britt Gardens, following Jackson Creek. 380' ADA approved path to Historic Britt Sequoia.

2 Britt Ridge Trail
1 mile / flat

Begins behind the Britt Festival Pavilion at the end of West Fir St. Drinking fountain at trailhead.

3 Rich Gulch Trail
1 mile / moderate

The site of one of the richest gold strikes in the history of the West. Stretches between the West Fir Street trailhead and South Oregon Street. Follows old hydraulically mined gulches and glory holes dating from the 1860s.

4 Jackson Creek Trail
1/3 mile / steep

Connects the Britt Ridge Trail to the Sarah Zigler Interpretive Trail.

5 Jackson Forks Trail
2/3 mile / steep

Begins at the western terminus of the Sarah Zigler Trail. A great trail to view the transitional forest as it changes from a moist riparian vegetation zone with northern exposure to a dryer oak and pine savanna with southern exposure.

6 Panorama Point Trail
1/3 mile / moderate

A spur trail branching from the main Rich Gulch Trail. View of Jacksonville's Historic District, the Siskiyou and Cascade mountains, the rim of the Crater Lake caldera, and 9,495' Mt. McLoughlin.

7 Oregon Trail
1/3 mile / steep

Connecting Rich Gulch with South Oregon Street.

8 Petard Ditch Trail
1 1/2 mile / mod to steep

Begins in Rich Gulch and follows remnants of the historic 1860 Petard Water Ditch toward Jackson Creek 400' up to the top of the BLM "40", then returns to Rich Gulch.

9 Chinese Diggings Trail
1/3 mile / flat to moderate

Connects Rich Gulch to Hill Street and the Beebe Woods, to Applegate Street. View old water ditches and mining tailings piled up by teams of Chinese workers. The most extensively mined site within the Rich Gulch Mining District.

10 Applegate Trail
1/4 mile / flat

Connects the Chinese Diggings to Applegate Street, via Hill Street and Beebe Woods.

11 Frenchman Mine Trail
1/2 mile / mod to steep

A loop trail within the Beebe Woods, located between Hill and Applegate Streets.

12 California Trail
1/3 mile / mod to steep

Connects East California Street to the upper portions of the Beekman Woods.

13 Beekman Loop Trail
1 mile / mod to steep

Trailhead behind the historic Beekman House on East California Street. Trail passes through the Beekman Native Plant Arboretum featuring native plant examples from the eight life zones of the Siskiyou and Cascade mountains.

14 Grove Woods Trail
1/3 mile / mod to steep

Connects the upper portion of the upper Beekman Loop Trail to South 3rd Street. Allows for walking access to Rich Gulch.

15 Britt Canyon Trail
1/3 mile / steep

Spring wildflowers abound on this trail on the side of Britt Canyon. Connects to the Rich Gulch Trail.

16 Sugarpine Trail
1/4 mile / steep

Connects Petard with South Fork View Trail. A Sugar Pine tree is near the top end of the trail.

17 White Oak Trail
1/3 mile / moderate

A continuation of Sugarpine Trail to the high point of Petard Ditch Trail on the south side of the valley.

18 Liz's Trail
2 miles / mod to steep

Leaves Petard Loop Trail for an out-and-back strenuous hike. In memory of Liz Braislin.

19 South Fork View Trail
1/2 mile / flat

Wooded trail above the South Fork of Jackson Creek to the Petard Ditch Trail.

20 Jane Naversen Trail
1/4 mile / flat

Connects Jackson Forks Trail to Rich Gulch Trail.

21 French Gulch Trail
1/4 mile / moderate

A trail into the historic Rich Gulch, with mining displays.

22 Quarry Trail
1/4 mile / moderate

Trail meanders above an abandoned stone quarry along a south facing slope.

23 Catholic Wagon Trail
1/4 mile / flat

The Catholic Wagon Trail made it possible for mourners to follow the horse-drawn hearse without crossing into opposing sections of the cemetery.
